TAFT'S VISITOR WANTS SCALP

Speaker Cannon, Confers With President-Elect.

Oil prosecutions; Jeannette L. Gilder, his wife to Frederick Whitridge, receiver of the Third Avenue Railroad, and Congressman Fowler, of New Jersey. Mr. Tatt said that all the engagements for callers to-day had been made by his brother.

After his speech at the Metropolitan Temple in West Fourteenth street last night at the McKinley organ dedication home and retired. He did not leave his room until 10 o'clock to-day, and after a leisurely breakfast went out with Timothy L. Woodruff for an automobile

During the morning about a dozen cranks and semi-cranks called at the Taft house. They were met and diplomatically disposed of by W. W. Misch-Ter, who is temporarily acting as secretary to the President-elect. Mr. Taft is guarded by Secret-Service Operatives Wheeler and Jervis and is accompanied everywhere while in the city by Lieut. Hogan, of the Central Office. Sergt. Kane and Patrolmen Schlett and Meyers are on guard at the house.

The engagements of Mr. Taft include a speech before the annual convention of the Civic ederation to-morrow night and an address at the dinner of the Ohio Society Wednesday night. Prominent Ohioans say that there may be something in the nature of freworks in Mr.

JUDGES MUST BE FORCED TO WORK, SAYS LAWMAKER

Assemblyman Murphy Thinks Jurists of Minor Courts Have Too Easy a Time.

Assemblyman Murphy, of Brooklyn

minor courts, said in conversation while the session was in progress to-day that he believed steps should be taken to "ge more work" from the Magistrates and on the witnesses' testimony that Magis-trates are alternating "on" and "off" for fifteen days, while Justices in the Cour of Special Sessions are "on" two month and "off" every third month, he said: "I think that steps should be taken t get more work from the Justices and Magistrates now on the bench. The calendar should be pulled up to date, and could be in Special Sessions, I believe, by increasing the number of justices in the district to seven, thus making it possible to have two courts of three justices each, apart from the justice of the Children's Court, sitting at once. The same dren's Court, sitting at once. The same principle could be applied to Magistrates, in so far as securing more than the present peric, of dut yis concerned. "As to proba an officership, it is a question wheth / the probation officers should be plated funder the jurisdiction of the State 's shation Commission. The problem is to nave men filling the positions who are really interested in their work in the reformation of prisoners."

Two probation officers were on the stand to-day. Both declared that the parole system was beneficial and that they had investigated many cases which were assigned to them.

TRIED THEFT BY WAGON LOAD

Robert Wallace, a youth of twentyone, attempted to steal a horse and wagon from in front of No. 413 West Broadway this afternoon, but was nabbed by two policemen after a chase that led to Broadway and Bleecker atreet.

The wagon contained $3,000 worth of woollen goods. The police say that young Wallace has a criminal record.

ON PANAMA CANAL DEAL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.-Not content with a review of the official papers in the Panama Canal purchase case, President-elect Taft spent a quiet day Martin Nathan, a sallow-cheeked. Representative Rainey, of Hilmons at the home of his brother, Henry W. steep-shouldered man of middle age, who author of the resolution for a Congress to-day had been made by his brother.

Mr. Kellogg is very anxious to be Attorney-General of the United States. It is believed that his visit to the President-elect to-day had some bearing upon that ambition. Congressman Fowler yearns to succeed Uncle Joe Cannon as Speaker of the House of Representatives.
